

A second resurvey ordered upon complaint that the first was erroneous.

MARYLAND, ss.

BY HIS EXCELLENCY THE GENERALL,

“Whereas I did by especiall warrant under my hand and lesser seal of this province, bearing date the 21st day of April last past, command and require you or your deputy to resurvey and lay out for Henry Cox of the county of Calvert, planter, three hundred acres of land called Lyons Creek, lying in the said county, according to the ancient bounds thereof, and that you should summon some of the ancient inhabitants of the said county to be present when the same should be resurveyed, and by their evidence thoroughly inform yourself of the ancient bounds of the said land and return a certificate of such resurvey into the secretary's office; and in obedience to the said speciall warrant, Charles Boteler, gent. deputy surveyor for the said county of Calvert, hath returned into the said office a certificate of the said lands bounds, dated the 27th of June last past and by him surveyed in the presence of Richard Hall, George Lingam and Paull Busy, good and lawfull men of the said county, and underneath the said certificate the said Richard Hall, George Lingam and Paul Busey have certified under their hands that the said Charles Boteler's certificate of resurvey is according to the ancient bounds of the said land, but for that complaint hath been made unto me by James Thompson who hath since purchased the said land, that the same is not resurveyed according to the ancient bounds thereof as he is able to make appear by the oaths of severall persons inhabitants of the said county, that were present at the first survey of the same, and being willing to have the truth of the premisses discovered and a true certificate of the same returned, have empowered and commanded Tobias Norton, gent. one of the commissioners of the said county of Calvert, to be with you at such time as you shall give him notice, upon the said land, and to administer an oath to such persons as shall be by the said James Thompson produced to give evidence which were the ancient bounds of the same:

Resurvey and lay out therefore for the said Henry Cox, the said parcell of land according to the ancient bounds thereof, and according to such evidence and directions as shall be given unto you by the said witnesses, upon oath sworn before the said Tobias Norton, as aforesaid; PROVIDED the lines of the said land do not run into other men's lines surveyed before the first survey of the said land, nor into any land before that time reserved for his lordship's use; and return your certificate of resurvey, the evidence of the witnesses sworn as aforesaid, with the name of the place, in what coun-
