

one bound tree of the said tract called Whittmarsh Delight now to be found whereby to ascertain the true bounds thereof; as by the complaint of the said Weatherley is sett forth: for which reason he hath prayed, (to prevent any further disputes) his lordship's speciall warrant to resurvey the said tract called Whittmarsh Delight according to the true intended ancient metes and bounds thereof to be ascertained by a jury of the Neighbourhood therein well knowne, which the said Weatherley alledged are now living and it was granted unto him.

"Resurvey therefore, and lay out the said tract called Whittmarsh Delight, according to the true intended antient meets and bounds thereof accordingly as you shall be directed by twelve good and lawful men of the Neighbourhood therein well knowne, to be by the sheriff of the said county thereunto impannelled and sworne, which accordingly the said sheriff is hereby authorised and empowered to doe, as also to take evidence upon oath of such persons as shall then and there be produced, and appeare and return your certificate of resurvey thereof into the land office at the city of St. Maries with all convenient speed; and for soe doing this shall be your warrant. Given under the lesser seale of this province, the fourth day of March in the seventh year of the dominion of the Rt. Hon'ble Charles, &c. Annoque Domini 1681.

"Signed per order and appointment of the Rt. Hon'ble the Lord Proprietary,

"JOHN LLEWELLIN, Regr.

"To Vincent Lowe, Esq. Surveyor Gen'll or his Deputy —."

LIBER W. C, No. 4, folio 137.

John Lyon cent. resurv. 300 } Maryland, ss.—To the right
ac. called "Whittmarsh," } hon'ble Charles lord Baltimore, at suit of Jas. Weather- } lord and prop'ry of this province,
ly. } &c. March the 20th, 1681.

By vertue of a speciall warrant bearing date the fourth day of March, in the 7th year of the dominion of the right honourable Charles, &c. Annoque Domini 1681, granted out of the office for lands unto James Weatherly, of Somerset county, for the resurveying and laying out of a tract of land now in the possession of John Lyon, formerly surveyed for Richard Whittmarsh, called Whittmarsh Delight (by the direction of a jury, &c.) These are therefore humbly to certify, that I, Francis Jenkins, deputy surveyor under the hon'ble collonel Vincent Lowe, Esq. surveyor general, have (by