This prohibition was revoked and lands permitted to be granted as usual by a letter from the Proprietary dated the 18th of November following. The Proprietary did not come into the Province as he had proposed.

“ A Commission annexed to the Conditions of Plantation Anno 1648.

“ Cecilius, &c. to our trusty and well beloved William Stone Esquire, our Lieutenant of our province of Maryland, Greeting Whereas we have thought fit for divers reasons to revoke our former Conditions of Plantation for our said Province of Maryland and to propose other Conditions of Plantation for the future within the said Province which we send you herewith written in parchment under our hand and greater seal at arms bearing date the twentieth day of June last past and hereunto annexed, and Whereas we have likewise herewith sent you certain draughts or forms of Grants the one of a Manor and the other of a Freehold under our hand and greater seal at arms bearing date with these presents and have hereunto also annexed, which forms we would have observed and no other, mutatis mutandis et repletis replendis, in the granting of lands within the said province for the future by virtue of the said last Conditions of Plantation bearing date as aforesaid or by virtue of any other warrant hereafter under our hand and seal at arms for granting of lands there excepting where we shall by any such warrant give directions to the contrary. We do therefore declare hereby that we have and do hereby revoke from henceforward all former Conditions of Plantation for our said Province of Maryland heretofore proposed by us so as we will not have any land in our said province hereafter granted from us to any person whatsoever by virtue of any of the said former Conditions of Plantation for or in respect of the transportation of any person or persons whatsoever into our said Province from and after the date hereof and we do will and require you to publish this our declaration in our said Province with all convenient speed to the end that all those whom it may concern may
