So the amendment submitted by Mr. McKaig was rejected.

Mr. Barnes (by unanimous consent,) asked and was granted leave of absence from the sessions of the Convention until Tuesday next.

Mr. Syester submitted the following amendment as a substitute for Section 24.

Sec. 24. The salary of each Chief Judge shall be three thousand dollars, and of each Associate Judge of the Circuit Court two thousand five hundred dollars per annum, payable quarterly, and shall not be diminished or increased during his continuance in office.

The President (Mr. Brooke in the Chair,) decided that it
