

neither of the said Officers shall be allowed, or receive any fees, commissions, or perquisites of any kind, in addition to his Salary for the performance of any duty, or services, whatsoever. In case of a vacancy in either of the offices, by death, or otherwise, the Governor, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate, shall fill such vacancy, by appointment, to continue until another election, or a choice by the Legislature, as the case may be, and until the qualification of the successor. The Comptroller and the Treasurer shall keep their offices at the Seat of Government, and shall take such oath, and enter into such Bonds for the faithful discharge of their duties as are now, or may hereafter be prescribed by Law.

Sec. 2. The Comptroller shall have the general superintendence of the fiscal affairs of the State; he shall digest and prepare plans for the improvement and management of the Revenue, and for the support of the Public Credit; prepare and report estimates of the Revenue and Expenditures of the State; superintend and enforce the prompt collection of all Taxes and Revenues; adjust and settle on terms, prescribed by Law, with delinquent Collectors and Receivers of Taxes and State Revenue; preserve all Public Accounts; decide on the forms of Keeping and Stating Accounts; grant under regulations, prescribed by Law, all Warrants for money to be paid out of the Treasury, in pursuance of appropriations by Law; and countersign all Checks drawn by the Treasurer upon any Bank or Banks, in which the moneys of the State may, from time to time, be deposited; prescribe the formalities of the transfer of Stock, or other evidence of the State Debt, and countersign the same, without which, such evidences shall not be valid; he shall make to the General Assembly full Reports of all the proceedings, and of the state of the Treasury Department, within ten days after the commencement of each Session; and perform such other duties as shall be prescribed by Law.

Sec. 3. The Treasurer shall receive the moneys of the State, and until otherwise prescribed by Law, deposit them as soon as received, to the credit of the State, in such Bank or Banks, as he may from time to time with the approval of the Governor, select; the said Bank, or Banks giving security, satisfactory to the Governor, for the safe keeping and forthcoming, when required, of said Deposits, and shall disburse the same for the purpose of the State, according to Law, upon Warrants drawn by the Comptroller, and on Checks countersigned by him, and not otherwise; he shall take receipts for all moneys paid by him; and receipts for moneys received by him shall be endorsed upon Warrants, signed by the Comptroller; without which Warrants, so signed, no acknowledgment of money received into the Treasury shall be valid; and upon
