

of the people of the State shall have cast their votes in favor of a Convention; and all other forms of holding the election shall be in strict conformity to those pursued in the elections of delegates to the General Assembly; and it shall be the duty of the Governor to announce, by proclamation, published a month before the day appointed in the law, in two newspapers issued in the city of Baltimore, and one in every county of the State, if one be issued in the county, the result of such vote."

The Convention then, without further action, at 2 P. M., adjourned.

TWENTY-FIRST DAY.

ANNAPOLIS, TUESDAY, JUNE 4, 1867.

Convention met at 10½ o'clock. Prayer by the Rev. Mr. Hammond.

The President laid before the Convention a communication from the clerk of the commissioners of Howard county, showing the payment of the following amounts: Aggregate amount paid registers of voters and their clerks, $1,409; paid for election houses, $110; printing lists of voters, $467; total, $1,986. Aggregate amount of assessable property in Charles county, (estimated), $1,781,381.43; Allegany county, $16,604,631. Total amount paid for registering of voters and printing lists for Allegany county, $3,254.75. Registers of voters and clerks Queen Anne's county, 1865, $826.50; printing lists, $219.50; total, $1,046. Registers and clerks Frederick county for year 1865, $2,560; ordered to be paid for 1866 and April 1867, $1,821.28; total, $4,381.28; printing lists for 1865, $549.75; bills presented for 1866, $1,362.50.

Mr. Denson submitted an order that after Saturday, June 8, this Convention meet at 10 A. M. After some debate it was adopted.

The Declaration of Rights was then taken up, and no further amendments being offered, on motion of Mr. Kilbourn, it was ordered to be engrossed for a third reading.

The report of the committee upon the executive department was next proceeded with.