N. B. This Act (which was to continue 3 Years, &c.) gave the Licence Money to the Governor, for the Time being; which was claimed by Sir Thomas Lawrence, as belonging to the Secretary. And the Report of the Lords of the Committee of Trade and Plantations, being in his Favour, his Majesty in Council was pleased to approve of the said Report; and his Royal Dissent is accordingly dated at Whitehall the 2d of March 1692. Which being taken into particular Consideration by the Governor and Council here, on the 27th September 1693, and his Excellency Sir Edmond Andros, signifying his Renunciation of any Pretence or Claim to the Licence Money, under that Act, or any Part thereof; the Council, upon mature Deliberation, conceiving that the immediate utter vacating thereof, by Proclamation, would be very prejudicial to his Majesty's Service, and the Interest of the Country, besides that it would not fully answer the King's Pleasure in Favour of Sir Thomas, Resolved that the Publication of the Dissent should be at present suspended, till their Majesty's Pleasure therein, should be further known. And that, in the mean Time, the Perquisites due for Ordinary Licences, should redound to the Use and Benefit of Sir Thomas Lawrence, their Majesty's Secretary, pursuant to the King's Orders; and not to the Governor, as the said Act directs, &c.
