

At Which said first tuesday of September to witt the Seaventh day of the same Month Annoque Dom 1708 comes the said partys by their Attorneys aforesaid as the said Sherriff and Surveyor who makes returne of their said Warrant to them directed as aforesaid as follows Viz^t

To the Hono^{ble} Justices of the Provinc^l Court
August the 4th 1708

Henry Bayley ag^t Rich^d Cooper

MARYLAND ss. By Vertue of A Speciall Warrant from this Honoble Court bearing date the Ninth day of July last for the resurvey and laying out of A tract of land calld Marshy point lying in Talbot County aforesaid

This may humbly certifie that I have in presence of the Sherr of the said County and according to the claims and pretentions of the plaintiff in presence of the defendant Resurveyd and laid out the aforesaid land calld Marshy Point lying in the said County in A Creek calld Treadhaven Creek Beginning at a bounded Cedar tree standing on A point on the South side of the said Creek and running thence up the said Creek North Eighty degrees Easterly four hundred and Nine perches to an old bounded Stump on A Marshy point at the mouth of A branch calld Addam branch the said Stump being now washt down the bank and allmost decayed supposed by the Plaintiff to have been the Second bound tree of the said land and runing thence up the said branch South South east Three hundred and twenty perches then West Three hundred and fifty perches and from thence with a Strait line to the first bounded tree containing Six hundred and forty Acres described in the platt by black Lines.

[168] I do also Certify that I have in the presence of the Sherr aforse and according to the claims and pretences of the defendant in presence of the plaintiff Resurveyd and laid out A tract of land calld Hambleton neck Beginning at an old bounded Oak Stump Standing on A long point calld Hambletons point at the Mouth of parrotts branch Supposed by the Defendant to have been the first bounded tree of the said Hambletons neck and runing from the said Stump North by West Sixteen perches then North and by East Twenty Eight perches then North North west thirty Six perches then North east and by East Forty four perches then North thirty Six perches then then [sic] North west and by North Forty perches then North east and by East Seaventy perches then north east Twenty four perches then North east and by North thirty Six perches then South east twenty four perches then South east and by east twelve perches then east North East twenty perches then North North West thirty Six perches then North east Twelve perches then North North west thirty Six perches then South east forty four perches then east South east Fifty perches then east North east Thirty two perches then West Forty four perches then North north west twenty perches then West North west Forty perches then North Sixty four degrees Westerly