

to Examination of the Record and process afd, and the said Tho^s Bordley likewise

And now here at this day to witt the day and Year last above mentioned all and singular the Record process and proceedings of the Provinciaall Court aforesaid with the Errors aforesaid Assigned being read heard and by the Court here fully understood and duly considered, and for that it appeareth to the Court here that the Injunction heretofore obtaind in the same cause is dissolved Thereupon it is considerd by the Court here the day and Year aforesaid that the Judgment of the Prov^l Court aforesaid for the Errors in the record process and proceedings thereon being be reversed annulld and altogether held for none.

[301]

Llynnes Ex^{rs} and Devisces v Majty

This cause standing for hearing this tenth day of March Annoque Dmi 1714; comes Thomas Macnemara Esqr especially Assigned and appointed to defend the Errors Assigned on behalf of our Sovereign Lord King George that now is and Suggesteth that our late Sovereign Lady Queen Anne of glorious memory is decesd) as alsoe the said Walter Storey and Michaell Martin Executors of Ann Llynnes's who was Executrix of Phillip Llynnes Esqr decesd by Thomas Bordley and Wornell Hunt their Att^{ys} afd alsoe And the aforesaid Thomas Macnemara Esqr for us especially appointed as afd saith that neither in the record and process of the Provinciaall Court aforesaid nor in the rendring of Judgment thereupon it is in any thing thereof Erred and of this he prays the Court of our Lord the King here will proceed to examine and enquire etc. and and [sic] the said Executors by their sd Attorneys likewise

And now here at this day to witt the tenth day of March aforesaid the Record process and proceedings of the Provinciaall Court aforesaid and all and Singular the premises being read heard and by the Court here fully understood and maturely deliberated

Therefore it is considered by the Court the day and Year aforesaid that the Judgment of the provinciaall Court aforesaid for the Errors i[n] the record process and proceedings thereupon [being] be reversd. Annulld and held for nought,

[302]

Mitchells Ad^{rs} v Majty

This cause standing for hearing this tenth day of March Anno Dmi 1714-5 comes as well Thomas Macnemara Esqr Especially appointed to defend the matters aforesd for Errors assigned on behalf of our Sovereigne Lord King George that now is (and Suggests that our late Sovereign Lady Queen of Glorious memory is decesd) As alsoe the aforesaid Dan^l Mitchell and Grace Phillips Adm^{rs} as aforesaid by Thomas Bordley their Attorney likewise And the said Thomas Macnemara saith that neither in the Record