

Whereupon the petition and proceedings afores^d and the allegations of both parties there upon being fully heard

It is the opinion of this Court that the one hundred and fifty pounds Sterling mentioned in Greshams bill was but a reasonable price for the twenty thousand pounds of Tobacco therein mentioned in the year 1716 And that the Said Gresham having made his Election rather to pay the Said money than the Tobacco, The Said Bordley retain in his own hands the fifty pounds Sterling he was adjudged by the Decree in Chancery to refund to the Said Gresham And this Court Order and adjudge the Decree in Chancery to be reverst And that the said Bordley retain the aforesaid fifty pounds Sterling in his own hands And to his own use And that the Said Gresham's bill in the Chancery Court be dismiss with the Costs there and in this Court.
