

of goods brought into one Port and Removed to another one Man Shall not Enter goods in the Name of another) Among other things it is therein contained that every Merch^t as well Denizen as stranger which Shall bring from thence forth any manner of goods into any Port within the Realme by way of Merchandize, and there doe Enter the s^d Goods and Merchandizes in the Bookes of the Customers of the s^d Port where the Goods and Merchandizes Shall First Come to, and the Kings Duty thereof to the s^d Customers contented or therefore with him agreed and afterwards that done will convey and carry away [48] these goods or Merchandizes from thence into any other Port within the s^d Realm That then the Owner of the s^d Goodes or Merchandizes his Factor or Attorney Shall bring from the Customers of the Port where the s^d Goods or Merchandizes be So Entred a Certificate under the Same Customers Seales directed to the Customers of the Port whereunto the s^d Goodes Shall be conveyed or carried making mention within the Same Certificate as well of the Naturall Colour length and Value of all Merchandizes So Entred used to be measured with Ell or Yard as of the Naturall weight Content or Vallue of all manner other Merchandizes Used to be weighed or Vallued, and that the Same Certificate So made be delivered to the s^d Customers before the s^d Goods be discharged So that they may See whether the Nature Colour or length value, content or weight of the Same doe agree with the s^d Certificate So that the King be not deceived of his Customes and Subsidies thereof due and if any certificate from thenceforth be made by any Customer of any Port whereto any Such Merchandize[s] or goodes Shall be First brought and there in their bookes Entered not making mention according as is afores^d That the s^d Customer or Customers for their misbehaving Shall loose their Office and make Fine with the King for the Same at his pleasure and further more if any Such goodes or merchandizes or any parcell thereof be discharged unpact or put to Sale within any port then within the Same where they Shall be First Entered before the s^d Certificate Shall be delivered and the Same goods and Merchandizes Seen according as above is Expressed That then all the s^d goods or Merchandizes be forfeited to the King our Sovereign Lord the one halfe thereof to remain to his Highness and the other-halfe to him or them that Shall prove any Such goodes or Merchandizes So forfeited as in and by the s^d Statute relation thereunto being had amongst other things more at large may appear And whereas also by one other Statute of England made at the Parliam^t held in the Twelfth year of the Reign of King Charles the Second Intituled a Subsidie granted to the King of Tonnage and Poundage and other Summes of money payable upon merchandize exported and imported which is in full Force and unrepealed amongst other things it is therein Contain'd That if any wines, goods or other merchandizes whereof the Subsidies afores^d are or Shall be due Shall at any time after the 24th day of June in the s^d Statute mentioned be Shipt or put into any boat or Vessell to the intent to be Carried into the parts beyond the Seas or else be brought