And thereupon this Cause stands Continued untill next Court (to Wit) the 11th day of April Anno Domi 1720 Comes as well the said Nath<sup>l</sup> Hynson Gaurd<sup>n</sup> of Nath<sup>l</sup> Hynson son of John Hynson Compl<sup>t</sup> by Thomas Bordley Esq<sup>r</sup> his Councill as also John Ward Def<sup>t</sup> by M<sup>r</sup> Daniel Dulany his Councill and the Cause having been Ordered for hearing this Court on the bill and Answer af<sup>d</sup> by Consent of both Parties.

Thereupon all and Singular the Allegations on both Sides being heard fully understood and mature deliberation thereupon had It is by the Judge here this Eleventh day of April af<sup>d</sup> Ordered Adjudged Sentenced and Decreed that for as much as it Seems to the Judge here that the Land mentioned in the Compl<sup>ts</sup> Bill called Martinson Appears to be Contained within the bounds of the Land called the Worlds End and Triangle and for that the said Land called [501] Martinson has Laid near fifty Years Unpatented which Seems to have been a Declining of the persons right thereto who took it up and the same person being an Alien and therefore not in a Capacity of holding the said Land without being Naturalized which is no ways made Appear.

Therefore Decreed that the said Land called Martinson be the right and Estate of the Compl<sup>t</sup> and that the said Compl<sup>t</sup> pay unto the Def<sup>t</sup> the Consideration and Charge by him paid in Escheating the said Land. But that the Def<sup>t</sup> pay unto the Compl<sup>t</sup> the Cost by him Expended in this Suit and that the Injunction for to Stope the Proceedings at Law be perpetual.

Whereupon Daniel Dulany Att<sup>ny</sup> for the Def<sup>t</sup> prays An Appeale from this Decree to the President and Councill which is granted upon giving Security According to Law Dan<sup>l</sup> Dulany and Thomas Larkin Securitys and Ordered to give Bond in Common form in three hundred Pounds Sterling.
