D: Dulany

Thereupon the 18th day of May Annoque Dom 1725 af^d an Injunction was granted upon giveing good Security but afterw^{ds} (To Witt) the Same day and before good Security given or the Injunction Served the Defendant desired to be heard thereto by the following Caveat (Viz^t)

Sir I pray you will enter Caveat Against the granting any Injunction Against me at the request of Thomas Cockey [692] and his Sureties untill I be heard in Relation thereto this is According to practice and I'm told they Intend to put me off with Slender Sureties

To the Reg^r in Chancery.

Y^r Serv^t Th Bordley.

Which motion for Inj^o appeared to his Honour the Chancellor to have been made Without giveing the Defendant Notice thereof.

Whereupon the 21st day of the Same Month on a full hearing of the Councill on both Sides it was the Opinion of his Honour That there was no Cause for Continuing the Inj^o And Thereupon ordered the Same to be Dissolved. Afterw^{ds} To Witt the 21st day of July Anno Dom 1725 Came Thomas Bordley the Defendant in his proper person and Appeared to the bill af^d and Thereupon the S^d Complainant (being a Non Resident) at the prayer of the Defendant is adjudged to give Security for Costs According to Act of Assembly

Thereupon Daniel Dulany Esq^r of Councell with the S^d Complainant Enters into Recognizance in the Sume of one hundred pounds Sterling for the payment of the S^d Action in Case the Complainant Shall not prosecute his Bill With Effect or that the Complainant Shall not obtain a Decree of the Said Court to the Contrary

And Thereupon the Said Thomas Bordley Exhibited to the Said Court his Demurrer and answer to the af^d Bill of Complaint Which follows in these Words Viz^t

The Demurrer and answer of Thomas Bordley one of the Defendants to the Bill of Complaint of Jonathan Forward Complainant.

This Defendant by protestation Saith That the S^d Bill of Complaint is very Insufficient in the Law to be answered unto and Such as this Defendant
