

Samuel Smith, of colonel Smallwood's battalion, bearing date the 14th day of April last, a copy of which, attested by the clerk of the council of safety, your committee refer to.

"Secondly, That the said Samuel Purviance being, at the time of his writing the said letter, and giving the said instructions, chairman of the committee of Baltimore county, did write the said letter and give the said instructions under color of his said office of chairman, and as if at the request of the said committee; whereas the said committee were not consulted thereon, nor made acquainted therewith, as appears by the said letter and instructions, and by the proceedings of the said committee, attested copies whereof among the said papers are referred to.

"Thirdly. That the said Samuel Purviance, by writing and speaking, and particularly by a letter by him written to the president of the congress some time about the middle of April last, hath unjustly represented the convention and council of safety, as irresolute and afraid to execute the trusts reposed in them, and endeavored to draw a suspicion upon them of a want of spirit and zeal in the execution of their duty.

"All which is humbly submitted to the consideration of the honorable convention.

By order,

R. RIDGELY, clk. com."

On consideration whereof, Resolved, That Thursday next be appointed for the appearance of Samuel Purviance, jr., to answer the charge exhibited against him; but if it should appear by affidavit that Mr. John Smith (whose testimony Mr. Purviance alleges is material to him) cannot be had here on that day, then the convention do order, that Mr. Purviance shall appear as aforesaid on the Saturday following at 9 o'clock.

Mr. Mackall and Mr. Buchanan appeared in the house.
