

by the council of safety for his services, and for the ink and other materials, except paper, necessary for the said work; and the said treasurers shall also respectively pay to each signer of every thousand of the said bills one dollar and one third part of a dollar for his service.

That the treasurer of the western shore shall have a yearly salary of one thousand dollars, and the treasurer of the eastern shore shall have a yearly salary of four hundred dollars, for their trouble and expences.

That torn and defaced bills shall be exchanged at reasonable and convenient times.

That the said bills of credit shall be redeemed and sunk on or before the first day of January one thousand seven hundred and eighty-six, by taxes or other legislative provision, and this convention bind their constituents, and pledge the faith of the state, for the redemption of the said bills on or before the said first day of January, one thousand seven hundred and eighty-six.

That one hundred and twenty thousand dollars of the said bills of credit, so to be printed and struck, shall be applied to exchange the bills of credit printed and struck by virtue of the resolve of the convention on the twenty-sixth day of July, in the year one thousand seven hundred and seventy-five, and the said treasurers shall, upon the application of any person or persons holding any number and value of the said bills of credit, deliver to such person or persons the like value in the new bills of credit in lieu thereof.

That from and after the receipt of the bills of credit emitted by this convention by the said treasurers respectively, all payments which they shall make by virtue of any resolve of convention, shall be made in the bills of credit emitted by this and the last convention, and not in the bills of credit of the emission of July, one thousand seven hundred and seventy-five.

That the said bills of credit, which shall be so as aforesaid printed and struck, over and above the said bills hereby directed to be applied to exchange the said former bills of credit, be applied to the several purposes resolved on in this and the last convention of this state, and that the treasurers pay the same to the orders of the convention, council of safety, or such persons as this convention shall direct and appoint.

That the said treasurers, before they receive the said blank bills to be printed and struck by virtue of the resolves of this convention, shall give bonds respectively, the treasurer of the western shore in the penalty of twelve thousand pounds sterling, payable to
