

We of the Appalachian Governors Conference are proud of the role we have played in pioneering this dynamic new approach to useful government.

The Appalachian Governors Conference provides a vital and necessary link between federal, state and local programs; and we hope to speed the time of a brighter day for the entire Appalachian Region.