

Julian S. Neal, President, Fidelity and Deposit Company of Maryland

John M. Nelson, III, President, The Nelson Company

John Redwood, Jr., Partner, Baker-Watts and Company

Lawrason Riggs of J., Chairman of the Board, Riggs-Warfield-Roloson, Inc.

DeWitt L. Sage, Investor

Donald H. Sherwood, Vice President and Treasurer, Ellicott Machine Corporation

L. Mercer Smith, Vice President, The Chesapeake and Potomac Telephone Company of Maryland

Jason W. Stockbridge, President, Central Savings Bank of Baltimore

Harry T. Solomon, Past President, Anne Arundel Trade Council

Robert L. Tate, Chairman of the Board, Tate Industries, Inc.

Albert Tipper, Vice President, Equitable Trust Company

Sewell S. Watts, Jr., Partner, Baker-Watts and Company

Frederick L. Wehr, Chairman of the Executive Committee, Monumental Life Insurance Company

George W. White, Jr., Attorney at Law

LeBaron S. Willard, Jr., Chairman of the Board, Commercial Credit Corporation

Norbert A. Witt, President, Noxell Corporation

Jon A. Wurtzburger, Executive Vice President, Stein Bros. & Boyce, Inc.

REMARKS AT BALTIMORE COUNTY BAR ASSOCIATION DINNER

February 5, 1968

Mr. President, distinguished members of the Judiciary, fellow members of the County Bar Association, and guests:

Thank you for inviting me here this evening and I hope Dale Anderson will eventually forgive you for it. It is good to be back among so many old friends — this very distinguished group of lawyers and judges. Baltimore County lawyers are well known around the State as being “down-to earth” — simple and occasionally sober men.

And there is one member of this Association in particular that I want to take the time to pause and pay particular tribute to. He is not the pushy type but those who know him well are aware of his