

1483

Thomas Davis planter appeared before the Board of Superior Court that he paid the sum of twenty pounds of tobacco to Isaac Johnson the son wife of Thomas Manly ordered that the executor be not charged with the said twenty pounds of tobacco;

The executor is John to the estate } 19793
as by inventory of the appraisers ... } value of 16 to be taken out } 17000 in the hands of Mr. Kendall } and by the said Davis } 70

The executor J<sup>d</sup> . . . . . 17935
The executor C<sup>d</sup> . . . . . 12735
Left to Balance . . . . . 5200

And do be standing out in the hands of William Kendall's hands that he owes of the said debts to wit 13th June 1671

The Court this day having heard the estate of William Boyle late of this County deceased; do find that there is owing in the hands of Robert Catherin executor to the estate the sum of five thousand two hundred pounds of tobacco besides several other debts standing out to the said Kendall's hands that he owes of Thomas's debts the sum of one thousand seven hundred eighty eight pounds of tobacco;