

The Court orders that the present be discharged paying fees

The Court ordered the goods seized and in the Constable's hands be delivered to the said Charles

Rathbone Thomas Osborn

John Pike appears again before the Court, saying that he cannot find security; being bound to his good behaviour, but offering to be bound in bond of twenty pounds sterling money of England; and whereupon the said John Pike took an open Court acknowledge himself to stand indebted to the Hon. the Lord Proprietary & to his Honour's Lord & Proprietaries in the full & true sum of twenty pounds sterling money of England to be paid to the said Lord Proprietary & to his Honour's Lords & Proprietaries or certain Attorney, all which provided that if the said John Pike do not comply & faithfully pay his debt, peace & not any wife might have himself but observe & only he shall stand, then the acknowledgment to be of none effect otherwise to stand in full force now and then
