The deposition of Charles Vincent sworn Saying there was some Piled by both of us John James & my Self; his wife Salted it & I hope to fill it & the Rope to Carry it up & said some being my Henry Smith & read it without any order of my Master; there was two frying pans whereof in the one was meat; / /

The deposition of John King of Manchester sworn;

Saying he saw first Land in the River & the Cannons wife came to my Smith & told him that if they had done him any wrong they would make satisfaction to my Smith she said what they did they did for want; & she said that they would stay with him upon the plantation until they had made him satisfaction to the full; & saw the handful of true frying pans in the Oven and was brought out where the first Land was in the piddling & know not what name of the other pan; / /
