

Therefore the Com<sup>o</sup> in the presence of the pl<sup>o</sup> def<sup>o</sup> did take upon them to nominate twelve indifferent men to make Jury to enquire of the supposed trespass, viz; Richard Blittiey, Roger Hoollford; Owen Marbra; William Furnib; Charles Hall; John Avery; Thomas Bloyeb; James Nicholfon; John Rodob; William Jones; Lewis Jenwood; Peter Elzey. Which being done the Com<sup>o</sup> ordered the Sherifes Deputy Alexander King to summon the twelve men soe nominated to appear before them who appeared accordingly and are sworn

- |                            |   |                  |                 |   |           |
|----------------------------|---|------------------|-----------------|---|-----------|
| Jurij .....Jurij ..... | } | Richard Blittiey | Thomas Bloyeb   | } | Jurij men |
|                            |   | Roger Hoollford  | James Nicholfon |   |           |
|                            |   | Owen Marbra      | John Rodob      |   |           |
|                            |   | William Furnib   | William Jones   |   |           |
|                            |   | Charles Hall     | Lewis Jenwood   |   |           |
|                            |   | John Avery       | Peter Elzey     |   |           |

The following declaration was read
 Maryland for Richard DePworte late of Sommersett County planter was attached to answer unto Randall Revell of d
 plea of Trespass

And where upon the said Randall Revell by John Murogh his attorney saith that whereas the said Richard DePworte the five twentieth day of July in the xxviii year of the Dominion of Cecilus or at Manockin in a certaine place called by Double purchase by force & arms did enter; and five oak timber trees of the vallie of forty shillings did fell take and carry away and other enormities did there doe contrary to the peace where upon he saith he is dammifed and hath lost to the vallie of five pounds and there upon he brings his suite &

John Lepij examined John Blomfield (sworn)
 The Jurij