

The same day Comm^d as above

Benjamin Denwood aged about twenty five years years Juvenis Smith

At this Broth^r Thomas Browne and my selfe were at my shoppe where the said Thomas Browne to send him his horse Harry one month to plow and he sold him he could not send him that horse for he was continually use Thomas Browne told him he had he would send him down to plow and the said shoppe sent down that had lost his fingers for the said horse and my selfe did help with the said shoppe man to to take the horse out of the field and further saye not

The same day Comm^d as above

The Court adjourned until to morrow morning eight of the clock & orders that what Comm^d that are now present that do not appear to morrow morning by eight of the clock are comm^d making fault therein shall be fined one hundred pounds of tobacco

At the Court held the 11th day of January in the 11th year of the Dominion of the said King Charles the first before his Majesties Justices thereunto assigned & authorized present { m^r James Beedon : m^r John Kinder } Comm^d { m^r James Jones : Capt^o W^m Colbourne }

The Court being called itt ordered that m^r William Steuart & m^r Charles Ballard doe pay one hundred pounds of tobacco apiece for not appearing the morning by eight of the clock according to an order past yesterday before the adjournment of the Court