

of these parties spoken of do make a bargain with Stephen see if he can finde any other merchant will buy the Ralfe and I am content provided he make good pay but if neither of these mentioned or any other will buy the Ralfe and an opportunity present to sell the whole I give unto by virtue of his my written order and advise and the letter of attorney sent you inclosed to make sale of the whole stock and all and deliver Stephen Ralfe of the pay only referred in yo<sup>r</sup> hands twenty pounds in money or the full value thereof and is for the ballance of his Ar<sup>t</sup> due to me in money of which I shall send you some particular Ar<sup>t</sup> account of I have an opportunity if you will let it be for tobacco or English goods at such rates as I may not lose by them here if you sell only the Ralfe give the party that buyeth Allevoyance for the Ralfe but keep the Ballance in yo<sup>r</sup> own hand till Stephen give security for payment of the debt aforesaid then deliver the patent with an assignement of the one Ralfe thereof I pray S<sup>r</sup> make me what returne you can possibly procure of the said Ar<sup>t</sup> and this too if you can see for it would doe me service now if I had it; S<sup>r</sup> I have sent a Crise shaker bed & a boullster & a pillow bound up in a straight covered & a gunne of a booke long or hereabouts & an Iron Spitt 6 or 7 foot long & a Copper stew pan with a cover of the same both & a small Iron dripping pan all these things belong to my sonne Nicholas for w<sup>ch</sup> I have paid here in money eight shillings he was indebted & five shillings for buying & looking to the things by man that had them in Peeping with this pay you my money and the master his freight and give you a full
