

to please me and take his things but of the pleasure not to come pray returne them to me againe by I may take care of them for I stand engaged for them now, I should not raise you to hinder Stephen from being upon the plantation but let ~~him~~ divide the stock with Daniell according to the Covenant made betweene him & us whilst I have sent him with I pray you I see faire play betweene us & let Stephen give his engagement not to bezell away or dispose of any part of the stock but what hee is acceptable to you for till an opportunity presents for sale of y^e Ralfe or the whole, I have taken paines in vaine in writing so much of my murraine good for it was on board and drunk of brandy of 4 or 5 gallons for ditches but when I was disabled of coming they sent all on shore againe and would not bring any thing but told me they had altho' their purpose and would not come to the assistance shoue at all I am sorry I am so disappointed but I have sent here at adventure if providence bring them to you I had it is well if not it is well still see with my hand I bid you all farewell for time will not give leave to be large but rest

Yours in what I may while I am Mathew Drufhong

Subscription

for m^r Randall Revell in Manakoa river in County of Somerset on the western shore
 New England