

Rate and still doth detain and keep from y^e afores^d William Naughton a man servant known by y^e name of Nathaniel Williams as by an order of C^o held for North Hampton County in Virginia the 7th day of March Anno Domini 1671 the whiche the plaintiff is ready here to produce in C^o will more plainely appeare and although the aforesaid William Naughton hath often times demanded the said servant and forewarned the aforesaid William Ellic Coleman to detain or entertaine the aforesaid Nathaniel Williams yet notwithstanding the aforesaid Ellic Coleman hath and still doth refuse to deliver the aforesaid Nathaniel servant to the aforesaid William wherefore the said W^m as aforesaid bringeth this subje

The p^t p^roceedeth this following ord^r w^{ch} is read At C^o held for North Hampton County the 7th March 1671

Present { Juge: W^m Andrews
 Capt: John West : w^{ch} John Miggall
 Capt: Edm: Bowman: w^{ch} W^m Curtis }

Whereas it appeares by a Condition of agreement under the hand of W^m Naughton and Nathaniel Williams that Nathe: Williams was hereby to serve the said Naughton the term of foure yeares beginning in October 1671 for a Consideration in the said Condition specified And whereas the Court doe conceive the said Consideration to be too little for so long service and the said Naughton having referred himselfe to the C^o to see what further Consideration as they should thinke fitt, the Court doth accordingly order That
