

The Co<sup>t</sup> after examination of the witnesses doe finde that there is due unto the pl<sup>t</sup> Robert Hopkin from the Def<sup>t</sup> Thomas Davis plantor one yearling heifer and order that the Def<sup>t</sup> deliver the same yearling unto the pl<sup>t</sup> at best paye of such otherwise experience

The same day Comm<sup>o</sup> at above

Robert Houlston bringeth his servant Thomas Cole to have his age judged by the Co<sup>t</sup> The servant pleades that he hath an indenture but his witnesses not ready to prove the same The Co<sup>t</sup> ordered hereupon that hearing should be the next Co<sup>t</sup>

The same day Commission<sup>s</sup> at above

Vincent Shuttleworth pl<sup>t</sup> vers
 Richard Blitney def<sup>t</sup>

} an<sup>n</sup> of the case
 The pl<sup>t</sup> and def<sup>t</sup> being called appeared

The Declaration read

Sommesett<sup>s</sup> vs Richard Blitney was attached to answer unto Vincent Shuttleworth in an<sup>n</sup> of the Co<sup>t</sup> of i / i

And whereupon the said Vincent Shuttleworth for himselfe saith that in and about the month of July in the xxviijth year of the Dominion of the R<sup>t</sup> Hon<sup>o</sup> ble Cecilus Lord of Dorset one thousand six hundred seventij and two did worke for him the said Richard Blitney, to the value of two hundred twenty eight poundes of tobacco