 was not the first which had prostituted my self to the request or desire of man, and further said I would not confess who was the father of the Child, unless I would see the midwife, would not put me to my oath for I should have the Liberty as others had before and advised me to tell him that the father was gone away, could not tell when he would returne and further told me that my time should not be prolonged for saying as he would pay me fine and on some time he came to my Master Capt. Colborne, and as I was going for some water he met me behind my Masters storehouse and asked me of Henry my Masters man and I had a falling out and I told him yes we had that my reasoning was out and that Henry my man said the Child was none of his, and that he would not stage it his answer was that I might wish that I had bin ruled by him for he always told me that he did for the best for me and further asked me how long I had bin gone with Child I told him forty week he said no that I was to go forthright longer and bid me keep my own counsell for he would make Henry my Masters man to stage the Child, soone as he was free, / /
