

the wife of Alexander Draper Isaac Lillyard and William Plummer, which is granted;

The Deposition of Katherine Draper aged about

Thirty eight years;

Saith that at m^r Revell went to m^r Johnson to demand the cow the cow was not at home she was in the woods George Johnson said he had strange beast there but could not tell whose it was and that she did him a great deal of trespass and that she had done the same at another time m^r Revell and my self was at the house of m^r George Johnson she demanded the cow the said George Johnson wife replied we have killed the cow you say it yours I wish we might agree about her why should neighbours differ and we further say

Sworn in Co^r 11th Aug^r 1674 — — — Katherine Draper

The Deposition of Isaac Lillyard aged

About twenty seven years

Saith that m^r Revell sent me for the cow to m^r George Johnson and when I came he told me he could not find upon me now I asked the boy where she was living he answered that he thought she was now in the corn field and his master sent forth word by the boy he could not find upon me now and no more saith — — — Isaac Lillyard

Sworn in Co^r 11th Aug^r 1674