

Asking him the reason why he came away he replied that he was minded to go to Chaptank & take up Land and was told him it was A great way to go by Land from whence he was without dispute After some other discourse ^{was held into discourse} about his wife and children he said he married a very young girl And after he had married her he was forced to put her to school two or three years so far I say & further say not;

By order of Mr. Wm Stevens Coroner of South Jersey County & Judge of the Co: I did Summon a Jury and take as Coroner upon the man who went by the name aforesaid who was drowned in Little manny and buried upon an Island called Jones Island and by all circumstances should be the man; //

Given in Co: 11th November 1674 N. Simeah Corington

And County Court held the 10th day of November & by adjournment continued to 11th day of Dec^r in the 11th year of the Dominion of the R^{ty} Hon^{ble} Cecilus 2^d J^{no} 1674 before his Excell^{ty} Justices of the Peace Assigned and Authorized, //

Present	{	Mr. William Stevens	Mr. Charles Ballard	} Comm ^{rs}
		Mr. James Jones	Mr. David Brown
		Mr. George Johnson	Mr. Nicholas Rice
		Mr. John Kinder	Mr. James Dyckell

Ordered That the severall Persons who are fined to doe worke upon his Excell^{ty} Highways be summoned to repair to the Houses of John Williard in Poromok the second Tuesday in December next coming or send workmen thither to performe the same; upon paine and perill (for default) that will answe^r thereon And further It is ordered That John Corington be overseer of the said parties; //