

woman that was then the wife of the deceased but not the mother of the orphan in fear to say what is pleasing you ^{will} ^{per} ^{of} ^{definitely} ^{cheering} in the orphan's Right And say ever pray, / /

And he said Robert Ringardson in his proper person committed and defended himself and believed he had writing which is read with, / /

Know all men by these presents that I Elizabeth Teage do hereby my former deed & gift of my husband's son John Teage unto Robert Ringardson according to custom of the Country and I Elizabeth Teage do hereby well know he is 6 years old his next February

1670

Thomas Holbe

H. M. Bernard

Elizabeth Teage.

John Teage the orphan of John Teage deceased being eleven years of age next February and hath lived with Robt Ringardson ever since his father dyed; this record that the said orphan John Teage remaine with the said Robert Ringardson and to serve him till Robert will be come to age The said Robert Ringardson to learn him the trade of Shoemaker if the said John Teage be Capable to learn the same, / /