

John Dormant's horse came into his wheate and I did — which was about the first of May and afterward he desired me againe to give him notice and I did againe and he — said he would take a curse with him and afterward I saw the horse in the wheate and I and Richard Stevens would have catched him but we could not and if we could have catched him by his request I would have rode him to John Dormant's house doe. farre and further saide Not

Sworne in Court the 14th day of September A. D. 1675 on the Part of Richard Stevens def^t Against John Dormant pl^t in a plea of Trespass, /, /, —

Teste Thom. Beauchamp Cler. Cur

The Deposition of Phillip Yffew aged forty five or thereabouts, /, /, —

Saith That I went to Richard Stevens about Sunsett or thereabouts I went there for plants I see Richard Stevens heading of his mare in the Conne field and John Dormant Rysse a following of her and he called to some of his folks and there came as I take it William Rundall Sonne and Lead his mare into the tobace house and the horse followed her and Richard Stevens came to the folks and spoke to Edward Southron his boy to goe home and followe over the creeke to John Dormant to tell him to fetch home his horse doe farre I say and further saide Not, /, /, —

Sworne in Court the 14th Sept: A. D. 1675 on the part of Richard Stevens def^t ag: John Dormant pl^t in a plea of Trespass; Teste Thom. Beauchamp Cler. Cur