Jeremiah Look And d
seal

Signed sealed & delivered in the presence of James Davis

Tho. Light

The J<sup>es</sup> Jeremiah Look Acknowledged his hand and seal to be specially to be his but pleades and saith that he had no consideration for the same and saith James Davis at witness

The deposition of James Davis taken in C<sup>o</sup> of Middlesex James Davis being witness to a bill passed between Thomas Jones and Jeremiah Look being sworn saith

That Jeremiah Look made some exceptions in passing of this bill that if the said Jones should not appear in his behalf at St. Martins that he would not pay it, the Jones made answer that if he did not appear in his behalf at St. Martins and but speak in his behalf this bill to be due this is the truth and nothing but the truth to the best of my remembrance

The J<sup>es</sup> saith he hath known witness did desire reference to the next C<sup>o</sup> thereupon the Court ordered reference to of next County
C<sup>o</sup>
