

Sommesett vs John Goldsmiths Declaratory, against Mr George Johnson Justice of the peace for the foresaid County in dylea of Crispas upon the Case

And the said John by his Attorney Henry Smith saith, that when the said George was Surveyor for the said County of Sommesett the said John employed him to survey one hundred and fifty Acres of Land lying at the Head of Mankin River. But the said George fraudulently intending that some part of the said Land unto Thomas Mankin whereby the said John is unjustly detained from his Land not withstanding his rate paid the said George his fees as also the rent of the said Land these several years whereby the said John is damaged and hath sustained to the value of three thousand pounds of Tobacco and Cash. and thereupon brings his Suit //
