

Somersetts James Gad was summoned to answer unto John Taylor in Aplea of Debt; / / ~ ~ ~ ~ ~

And whereupon the said John by his Attorney George Hafford saith that the said James became indebted unto him the said John the first Summe of Two hundred & fifty pounds of good Sound grasse Tork as by A Certificate specially well more plainly appears here in Co^{rt} produced signed with hand of him the s^d James bearing date the 26th day of the Moth Dec^r 1672 wherein the said James did Assume upon himselfe and promise to pay unto the said John his Rent or assignee the s^d quantity of 250^l of Tork upon the last day of January next following the date of the s^d specially did for the performance whereof the said James binds himselfe his heirs & assigns and adm^r but he the said James little regarding his promise and Assumption fraudulently intending to deprive him the said John of the said 250^l of Tork denyeth and still doth to pay the same Although often herunto Required The plaintiffe saith he is Damified and Rath Damadge to the value of 500^l of Tork & Cash and thereupon brings his Bill; / / ~ ~ ~ ~ ~

Inhal ag: James Co^{rt} & quon George Hafford

1674