And the following messages:

BY THE SENATE, DECEMBER 9, 1800.

GENTLEMEN,

WE have rejected the resolution respecting the laws compiled by William Kilty. We deem the compensation to him, and the distribution of the laws, to be very different subjects, entirely unconnected with each other, and would wish distinct resolves to be sent to us upon them; as they now appear before the senate, it is out of our power to propose any amendment whatever to the first part of the resolution.

By order,

W. S. GREEN, clk.

BY THE SENATE, DECEMBER 9, 1800.

GENTLEMEN,

WE accede to your amendment, and are ready to proceed immediately to the election of a senator to represent this state in the senate of the United States. We have proposed no person in addition to those mentioned by your house. We have appointed James Hollyday and Philip Thomas, Esquires, to join in the examination of the ballots.

By order,

W. S. GREEN, clk.

Which were read.
