

The bill for the relief of Henry Disherd, of Frederick county, was read the second time by especial order and will pass.

The resolution respecting the laws compiled by William Kilty, was read the second time by especial order and assented to.

The supplement to the act for the promotion of literature in this state, was read the second time and will not pass.

The resolution in favour of colonel Francis Ware, was read the second time by especial order and unanimously assented to.

The bill to enlarge the powers of the commissioners of the town of Havre-de-Grace, was read the second time and will pass with the proposed amendment.

Amendment proposed. After the word "shingles" in the third line of the second page insert "offered for sale."

The resolution respecting repairs of the stadthouse, was read the second time and assented to.

The bill for the relief of John Woodall, of Kent county, was read the second time and will pass.

The bill for the benefit of Henry Joseph Stier, of Prince-George's county, was read the second time and will pass with the proposed amendments.

Amendments proposed. Strike out from the word "property" in the seventh line of the first page to the word "therefore" in the ninth line of same page. At the end of the bill add, "and provided also, that unless the said Henry Joseph Stier shall, on or before the first day of June next, proceed according to law to make himself a citizen of the United States, this act shall have no effect to confirm his title to the property above mentioned, nor shall he, or any person claiming under him, derive any benefit under this act; but if the said Henry Joseph Stier shall die before the time when, by the laws of the United States, he may become a citizen thereof, nothing in this proviso contained shall prevent him from transmitting or transferring his said property by descent or devise to any issue he may leave residing within the United States, who is hereby declared capable in law to hold the same, or to any other person, being a citizen of the United States, and capable in law to hold the same."

The senate adjourns till to-morrow morning 10 o'clock.

F R I D A Y, December 12, 1800.

THE senate met. Present the same members as on yesterday. The proceedings of yesterday were read.

The bill to prevent swine from going at large in the town of Queen-Anne, in Prince-George's county, the bill to prevent the going at large of geese and swine in Creager's-town, in Frederick county, the bill to alter the times of the session of Baltimore county court, of the court of oyer and terminer and gaol delivery for Baltimore county, and of the court of appeals, the bill to alter such parts of the constitution and form of government as relate to voters and the qualification of voters, the amendments thereto, the bill for the relief of Henry Disherd, of Frederick county, the supplement to the act for the promotion of literature in this state, the bill to enlarge the powers of the commissioners of the town of Havre-de-Grace, the amendment thereto, the bill for the relief of John Woodall, of Kent county, the bill for the benefit of Henry Joseph Stier, of Prince-George's county, the amendments thereto, the resolution respecting the laws compiled by William Kilty, the resolution in favour of colonel Francis Ware, and the resolution respecting repairs of the stadthouse, were sent to the house of delegates by the clerk.

The bill to levy on the assessable property of Anne-Arundel county a sum of money for the purpose herein after mentioned, was read the second time and will pass with the proposed amendments.

Amendments proposed. Strike out from the word "sums" in the interlineation between the thirteenth and fourteenth lines of the second page to the end of the section, and insert, "ought to have been paid to said Elliotts until the same shall be payable by the collector as hereafter directed, and costs expended." Strike out the words "without interest" in the interlineation between the sixteenth and seventeenth lines of the same page. After the word "the" in the eighteenth line of the same page strike out to the second word "to" in the nineteenth line of the same page, and insert, "sum to be settled and adjusted by the levy court as aforesaid."

The president communicates to the senate a petition from James M. Henry and James Carroll, of Baltimore county, counter to the passage of the bill to enable the mayor and city council of Baltimore to introduce water into the said city; which was read and ordered to lie on the table.

The bill to levy on the assessable property of Anne-Arundel county a sum of money for the purpose herein after mentioned, and the amendments thereto, were sent to the house of delegates by the clerk.

The resolution in favour of Hannah West, was read the second time and dissented from.

The clerk of the house of delegates delivers a bill, entitled, A further supplement to an act, entitled, An act to establish and regulate a market at Bridge-town, in Kent county, and for other purposes, endorsed; "By the house of delegates, December 9, 1800: Read the first time and ordered to lie on the table.

"By order,

W. HARWOOD, clk.

"By the house of delegates, December 11, 1800: Read the second time and will pass.

"By order,

W. HARWOOD, clk."

A bill,