 WE have agreed to all the amendments proposed by you to the bill, entitled, An act for the relief of sundry insolvent debtors, excepting the one to be inserted after the word "creditors" in the fifth line of the twenty-first page. Instead of this we submit to your consideration the propriety of striking out from the word "so" in the same line of the same page to the word "act" in the seventh line of the same page, and of inserting the amendment herewith sent, viz. "two or more of his or their creditors, having due to them the amount of one fourth of the debts due by him or them at the time of the passing of this act, or in case there be not more than eight creditors, if any one creditor, having due to him the amount of one fourth of such debts."

 GENTLEMEN,
 WE have negatived your resolution in favour of Robert Courtenay, as we think it places the state of Maryland in a different situation from what she would have been in provided he had filed his bill in chancery for relief before the payment of the consideration money for the land. We herewith transmit a resolve, which, if originated by you, will meet our concurrence.
 By order, W. S. GREEN, clk.
