

8 VOTES AND PROCEEDINGS, NOVEMBER SESSION, 1800.

And also the following message:

BY THE HOUSE OF DELEGATES, NOVEMBER 13, 1800.
GENTLEMEN OF THE SENATE,

YOUR message of the 11th instant highly merits, and has justly obtained, our most respectful attention, and our most serious consideration. And could we, consistently with our ideas of the impressive duty we owe to our constituents, we would willingly accede to your proposition of proceeding to the election of a senator to represent this state in the senate of the United States; but persuaded as we are, that the interest of the republic would be greatly advanced by a reference of this momentous subject to the consideration of the next general assembly, we are unwilling at this time to proceed to the election, the event of which will be obviously of such extensive and lasting importance.

By order,

W. HARWOOD, clk.

Which was read.

William H. Dorsey, Esquire, has leave of absence till Sunday the twenty-third instant.
