An ACT to correct a mistake in the beginning of lot No. three thousand nine hundred and eighty-three of the lands lying westward of Fort Cumberland.

Passed 19th of Dec. 1800.

WHEREAS it is represented to this general assembly, by the petition of Christian Mulsleman, that a patent has been granted to him for a lot of land lying westward of Fort Cumberland, distinguished on the plot by lot No. three thousand nine hundred and eighty-three, and that the surveyor, in making a return of the courses of the said lot, has represented the same to begin at the beginning of lot No. three thousand seven hundred and eighty-eight, instead of lot No. three thousand seven hundred and fifty-eight, the true beginning of the said lot No. three thousand nine hundred and eighty-three; and the facts stated in the said petition appearing to be true,

Preamble.

II. BE IT ENACTED, by the General Assembly of Maryland, That the register of the land-office for the western shore be and he is hereby authorized, empowered and directed, to correct the mistake made by the surveyor in his return of the courses of the said lot No. three thousand nine hundred and eighty-three, by altering the said return, and also to correct the patent for, and record of, the same, so as to make the said lot begin at the beginning of lot No. three thousand seven hundred and fifty-eight, instead of lot No. three thousand seven hundred and eighty-eight, as it now stands; provided, that nothing herein contained shall affect the right of any other person.

Mistake to be corrected, &c.

A Supplement to an act, entitled, An act to establish a bank, and incorporate the subscribers thereto.

Passed 19th of Dec. 1800.

WHEREAS as it appears by the act of incorporation of the bank, commonly called the Bank of Baltimore, that not more than two thirds of the directors in office shall be eligible as directors for the ensuing year, which is found on practice to be very inconvenient; therefore,

Preamble.

II. BE IT ENACTED, by the General Assembly of Maryland, That so much of the original act to which this is a supplement as requires that not more than two thirds of the directors in office shall be eligible as directors for the ensuing year shall be and is hereby repealed.

Part of an act repealed.

III. AND BE IT ENACTED, That nothing herein contained shall have force or effect until the consent of the stockholders in the said bank shall be given at a general meeting of the said corporation, and transmitted, under their corporate seal, signed by the president of said bank, to the clerk of the general court of the western shore, and to be by him recorded in the records of said court.

Not to have force, &c.
