An ACT relative to the jurisdiction of the court of appeals.

WHEREAS the authority and jurisdiction of the court of appeals has never been defined or ascertained, and doubts have been entertained respecting its authority to pass such judgment on a writ of error or appeal as ought to have been given in the court below, and to enforce such judgment by execution,

Passed 19th of
Dec. 1800.
Preamble.

II. BE IT ENACTED, by the General Assembly of Maryland, That the court of appeals have, and shall hereafter have, full power and authority, on reversing any judgment, or part of a judgment, at law, on a writ of error or appeal brought by a plaintiff, to give such judgment as ought to have been given by the court which gave the erroneous judgment; and in any case where the said court of appeals, on a writ of error or appeal as aforesaid, hath given or shall give such judgment as in their opinion the said court of law ought to have given, the said court of appeals shall have full power and authority to enforce their judgment by execution, in the same manner as the said court of law may enforce a judgment there given.

Court to have power, &c.

III. AND BE IT FURTHER ENACTED, That hereafter any execution which shall issue from the court of appeals shall express that it be returnable to the general court of the western or eastern shore, as the case may require; and the judges of the said general court shall be and they are hereby authorized and empowered to act upon the said return as if the execution had issued from the said general court.

Execution to express, &c.
