Passed 19th of
Dec. 1800.
Preamble.

An ACT for the relief of James Colquhoun.

WHEREAS James Colquhoun, a prisoner in Baltimore gaol, hath represented to the present general assembly, by petition, that he is unable to pay his debts, and prayed the benefit of an act of insolvency in his favour: And whereas it further appears, by a certain memorial offered by the said Colquhoun, that he is not a citizen of this state, and it being inconsistent with the principles of humanity that the said James Colquhoun should be confined in gaol, if he will bonâ fide deliver up all his property for the benefit of his creditors,

J. Colquhoun, admitted, &c.

II. BE IT ENACTED, by the General Assembly of Maryland, That the said James Colquhoun be and he is hereby admitted to all the benefits, and subjected to all the provisions, of the act for the relief of sundry insolvent debtors, passed this session, except such as are thereby restricted to merchants and traders; provided, that he shall make it appear to the chancellor, that he hath surrendered up,
