

Hagerstown; which said justice of the peace shall, in addition to his duties as justices of the peace of the State of Maryland, have the enforcement of the charter and ordinances of said town; he shall have all the power of ordering arrests and summoning witnesses that is now vested in him by law, and he shall demand and receive the same fees as in other criminal proceedings. The said police justice of the peace shall be furnished with a copy of the charter and ordinances of said town and each shall keep a separate docket of all town cases which said docket shall show in detail all the proceedings had in each and every case.

"265 B. The police justice of the peace appointed for districts 3, 17, 21, 22, 24 and 25 before qualifying, as such, shall give bond to the State of Maryland in a penalty of $1000 with a surety or sureties to be approved by the Clerk of the Circuit Court for Washington county conditioned that he will well and faithfully perform and execute the duties and obligations of the office of police justice of the peace and that he will account for and pay over to the County Commissioners of Washington county all fines, penalties, forfeitures and costs imposed by him and which he shall receive for or on account of criminal offenses tried before him under the provisions of the Code of Public General Laws and Code of Public Local Laws, and that he will account for and pay over to the Mayor and Council of Hagerstown all fines, penalties forfeitures and costs imposed by him and which he shall receive for or on account of offenses against the charter and ordinances of Hagerstown' and that he will well and truly account for and pay over to the person, persons, corporation or corporations entitled to the same all money coming into his hands for or on account of any business pertaining to or connected with his office. And the bond of the said police justice of the peace shall be liable at the suit of the State of Maryland for the use of the County Commissioners of Washington county, and of the Mayor and Council of Hagerstown, and of any person, persons, corporation or corporations entitled under any default of said condition.

"265 C. The police justice of the peace in and for the districts 3, 17, 21, 22, 24 and 25, shall attend at his office in Hagerstown, every day (Sunday excepted) at least