

Committee on Library, nine members.

Committee on Federal Relations, nine members.

Committee on Insolvency, nine members.

Committee on Insurance and Loan Companies, seven members.

Committee on Pensions, nine members.

Committee on Printing, nine members.

Committee on Labor, nine members.

Committee on Inspections, nine members.

Committee on Public Hygiene, nine members.

Committee on Temperance, nine members.

Committee on Amendments to Constitution of the State, nine members.

Committee on Revaluation and Assessment of Property, nine members.

Committee on Civil Service Reform, nine members.

On motion of Mr. Duncan, it was Ordered, That a committee of nineteen members, of which the Speaker shall be one and be the chairman, be appointed by the Speaker, who shall report to this House the subordinate officers necessary for the furtherance of the business of the House, and that the Speaker shall appoint his own private secretary, a messenger and a messenger to the printer, who shall also carry the mail.

On motion of Mr. Buckey, it was Ordered, That the Librarian furnish 12 copies of the Maryland Code for the use of the House of Delegates.

On motion of Mr. Scrimger, it was Ordered, That the postmaster of the House of Delegates (to be hereafter appointed) be, and he is hereby directed to furnish to each delegate the usual amount of stamps, to-wit: twenty-five dollars, and direct the same amount be allowed the Chief Clerk, the Journal Clerk, the Reading Clerk, the Chief Engrossing Clerk and the Sergeant-at-Arms, and that the Chief Clerk hand this order to the postmaster immediately after his qualification.

On motion of Mr. Norris, it was Ordered, That the Chief Clerk be directed to provide at once 1000 copies of the roll call for the use of members.