

column opposite the name of every registered voter either his party affiliations or the word "declined."

The Board of Registry shall be entitled to receive from the officers having custody thereof the last preceding registration books, for the purpose of comparison and assistance in identification, and if any one shall apply for registration his name shall be entered in the new registers, but he shall be marked "disqualified," unless such grounds of disqualification shall have been removed. At the end of the day's registry said officers shall compare the two registers so kept, and cause any errors in either of them to be corrected, by aid of the entries in the other, so as to make the same agree where there is any difference between them. Each of the same officers having the custody of one of said registers shall then sign his name or initials immediately under the last names registered under each letter in the book kept by him, so that no new name can be added without discovery

"The said Board of Registry shall keep, on blanks to be provided for that purpose by the Board of Supervisors of Elections, an alphabetical list of the names, addresses and color of all persons registered, and a separate list of all persons refused registration, and of all persons whose names are erased from the registry.

"In the City of Baltimore, at the end of each session, they shall deliver these lists to the police officer on duty at the registration office, and the list shall be delivered by the said officer to the police board, and by the police board to the Board of Supervisors of Elections in the forenoon of the day following said sitting. The Board of Supervisors for the City of Baltimore shall then cause such list to be printed in hand-bill form, in plain long primer type, and copies thereof posted within three days after each session, in such manner that they may be easily read, in at least ten prominent places in each precinct.

"112. The word 'election,' whenever used in this Article, shall be construed to include elections had within any county or city for the purpose of enabling voters to choose some public officer or officers under the laws of this State, or of the United States, or to pass upon any
