

amendment, law or other public act or proposition submitted to vote by law, and wherever the said word 'election' is used in this Article in creating or defining any offense or in prescribing the punishment of such offense or the procedure in the trial for such offense, the said word shall be construed to include primary elections, so that everything which it is by this Article declared to be unlawful to do or to leave undone at or in connection with or in relation to a general election shall be equally unlawful when done or left undone at or in connection with or in relation to any primary election held by any political party entitled to nominate its candidates by a primary election or by a convention, and such act of omission or commission shall be punishable when done at or in connection with or in relation to any primary election in the same manner as such act of commission or omission would have been punishable if done at or in connection with or in relation to any general election. The word 'precinct' as used in this Article shall be construed to mean an election district in a county or an election precinct in such district should such election district be so divided into election precincts, and when such election districts are so divided into election precincts, then to mean such election precincts, and in the city of Baltimore to mean the election precinct into which the ward is divided for the purpose of a general election. In computing the time for notices to be given under this Article, Sunday shall be included, except when the day on which said notice should be given should happen to fall on Sunday, in which event the same shall be given on the Monday, following, the day of giving the notice and the day of registration or election shall be excluded.

Sec. 3. And be it enacted. That a new section be, and the same hereby is added to the said Article 33, under the sub-title 'Intermediate Registration,' said section to be known as 'Section 30 A,' and to follow immediately after section 30, and to read as follows:

30 A. At any intermediate registration subsequent to the close of the next general registration, which shall be held in any county in this State after the enactment of this law, any registered voter may appear before the Board
