

of Registry and upon his identity being established to the satisfaction of a majority of the Board of Registry he shall have a right to require the said Board of Registry to make, alter or strike out any entry in the column headed 'party affiliation' opposite his name on the registries. It shall be the duty of the Board of Registry to enter in the column headed 'remarks' the fact that such entry was made, altered or stricken out and the date thereof.

"Sec. 4. And be it enacted, That the following fifteen additional sections be and the same hereby are added to Article 33, of Public General Laws, the said fifteen new sections to constitute a new sub-title of said Article, which sub-title shall be known as 'Primary Elections,' and which sub-title and its constituent sections shall follow immediately after section 151 of said Article, and be known as 'Sections 152, 153, 154, 155, 156, 157, 158, 159, 160, 161, 162, 163, 164, 165, 166 and 167, respectively, and which sections shall read as follows:

"152. All primary elections hereafter held in the State by any political party, which at the Presidential election next preceding the said primary election polled 20 per cent. or upwards of the total vote cast in this State for electors of President and Vice-President of the United States shall be held subject to the provisions of this Article.

"153. At any primary election which may be held in the city of Baltimore, or in any of the counties of this State at any time subsequent to the close of the next general registration, which may be held in the said city or in such county, all persons shall be entitled to vote whose names are enrolled on the registries of the precincts or precinct or precincts, district or districts in which or at the polls for which they may offer to vote as affiliated with the political party whose primary election it is, and no person whose name is not so enrolled upon said registries shall be entitled to vote at such primary election.

"154. Until the close of the next general registration in any county which may be held after the passage of this Act, it shall be the duty of the Board of Supervisors of Election of any county, to prepare primary election