

if possessed of the qualifications herein prescribed, shall be duly commissioned by the said board of supervisors.

"158. Not less than six days prior to the date fixed for any primary election, the Board of Supervisors of Elections shall appoint for each polling place at such primary election, primary election inspectors. Such primary election inspectors shall be appointed in the same manner in which judges and clerks of election of the political party holding said primary election are appointed, and shall possess the qualifications prescribed by law for such judge or clerk.

A list of persons so appointed primary election inspectors, with their residences, shall be hung up in some public and conspicuous place in the office of the Board of Supervisors of Elections, and shall be kept so hanging from the date of their appointment until after the close of the said primary election. Subsequent to the close of the next general registration which shall be had in any county or in the city of Baltimore after the passage of this Act, no one shall be eligible to be appointed primary election inspector unless he shall be enrolled on the registries as a member of the political party for which he is so appointed. Persons appointed primary election inspectors shall be notified of that fact, and shall attend before the Board of Supervisors of Elections at such reasonable time and place as shall be specified in the notice of their appointment, and shall there take and subscribe an oath before the said Board of Supervisors of Elections or before some member thereof, substantially as follows:

"I —— do hereby solemnly swear (or affirm) that I will honestly, faithfully and truly discharge my duties as an inspector of the primary election of the —— political party, which oath shall be prescribed among the records of the Board of Supervisors; said board may remove any person whom they may find unfit or incapable of discharging the duties of primary election inspector, and, in case of urgent necessity, they may excuse said primary election inspector, and they shall have the power to fill the vacancy occasioned by such removal or by such excuse. Any person appointed primary election inspector who shall refuse to qualify, or, who having qualified, shall neglect or refuse to act, shall be subject
