

of Elections, and the other shall be addressed to that party authority authorized by the rules, regulations, customs or usages of the party holding the primary election to receive the returns of the primary election.

“The tally sheets shall be in like manner, as is directed in said section 68, sealed up in separate envelopes, and each judge and each clerk shall write his name across the flap of said envelope, and the primary election inspector shall also write his name across the flap of said envelope, and one of the envelopes containing said tallies shall be addressed to the Board of Supervisors of Elections and delivered to the primary election inspector, and another shall be addressed to the party authority authorized by the rules, regulations, usages or customs of the party holding primary elections to receive the primary election returns.

“All the tickets which have been cast and counted shall be securely wrapped in a bundle, which bundle shall be sealed up with sealing wax or some adhesive substance, endorsed ‘voted and counted ballots,’ and placed in the ballot box, and the rejected and defective ballots shall likewise be put in another package and securely sealed up in like manner, endorsed ‘rejected and defective ballots,’ and placed in the ballot box. And the said ballot box shall then be locked and sealed up in the manner prescribed in section 69 of this Article.

“166. The Board of Supervisors of Elections shall, at 1 P. M., in the city of Baltimore, on the day following each primary election, and in the counties on the second day following each primary election, publicly, in the presence of all the persons who may choose to attend, open and read the return and the tally sheet for each district returned to them by the primary election inspector of such district, and shall then carefully file the said return and tally sheet, and shall at any time permit the same to be inspected by any one desiring to make such inspection in the presence of one of the members of said board, or of its clerk, and not otherwise. Upon a certificate of the party authority organized to pass upon and determine any contest arising out of any primary election held under the provision of this Article that a contest is pending before such
