Which was read a second time, and being considered, Mr. Satterfield offered the following amendment;

AMENDMENT PROPOSED.

Strike out all after the words "a bill," and substitute the following :

"Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That when, after the passage of this Act, personal injury is caused to an employe, who is himself in the exercise of due care and diligence at the time :

"1. By reason of any defect in the condition of the ways, works or machinery connected with or used in the business of the employer, which arose from or had not been discovered or remedied, owing to the negligence of the employer, or of any person in the service of the employer, and entrusted by him with the duty of seeing that the ways, works or machinery were in condition ; or

"2. By reason of the negligence of any person in the service of the employer, entrusted with and exercising superintendence, whose sole or principal duty is that of superintendence.

"3. By reason of the negligence any person in the service of the employer, who has the charge or control of any signal, switch, locomotive, engine or train upon a railroad, the employe, or in any case the injury results in death, the legal representatives of such employe shall have the same right of compensation and remedies against the employer as if the employe had not been an employe
