

do all or any part of the work comprised in such contractor's contract with the employer, such contract or sub-contract shall not bar the liability of the employer for injuries to the employees of such contractor or sub-contractor by reason of any defect in the condition of the ways, works, machinery or plant if they are the property of the employer, furnished by him, and if such defect arose or had not been discovered or remedied, through the negligence of the employer or of some person entrusted by him with the duty of seeing that they were in proper condition."

"Sec. 5. An employee or his legal representatives shall not be entitled under this Act to any right of compensation or remedy against his employer in any case where such employee knew of the defect or negligence which caused the injury, and failed within a reasonable time to give, or cause to be given information thereof to the employer, or to some person superior to himself in the service of the employer, who had entrusted to him some general superintendence."

"Sec. 6. An employer who shall have contributed to an insurance fund created and maintained for the mutual purpose of indemnifying an employee for personal injuries for which compensation may be recovered under this Act, or to any relief society formed for the same purpose may prove in mitigation of the damages recoverable by an employee under this Act, such proportion of the pecuniary benefit which has been received by such employee from any such fund or society on account of such contribution of said employee, as the contribution of such employee or society bears to the whole contribution thereto."

"Sec. 7. This Act shall not apply to injuries caused to domestic servants by other fellow employees."

Mr. Scrimger moved that the bill and amendment be made a Special Order for 1 o'clock on Wednesday.

While said motion was pending,

Mr. Wolfe moved that the vote by which the above order was passed be reconsidered and the matter be made the Special Order for Thursday, at 1 o'clock.

Which motion prevailed, and the amendment was ordered to be printed in the Journal.
